General Terms and Conditions of Business of TÜV Rheinland in Greater China

1.	Scope	3.8	TÜV Rheinland shall be entitled to raise its fees at the beginning of a month if overheads and/or purchase costs have increased. In this case, TÜV Rheinland shall notify the client in writing of the rise in fees. This notification shall be issued one month prior to the date on which the rise in fees shall come into effect (period of notice of changes in fees). If the rise in fees remains under 5% per annum, the client shall not have the right to object. If the rise in fees exceeds 5% per contractual year, the client shall be entitled to terminate the contract by the end of the month in which the rise in fees has been notified. The increased fees shall be deemed to have been agreed upon by the time of the expiry of the notice period.	13.2	The performance of a contract with the client is subject to the proviso that there are no obstacles to performance due to national or international trade regulations or embargoes and/or sanctions. In the event of a violation, TÜV Rheinland shall be entitled to terminate the contract with immediate effect and the client shall compensate for the losses incurred thereof by TÜV Rheinland.
1.1	These General Terms and Conditions of Business of TÜV Rheinland in Greater China ("GTBCB") is made between the client and one or more natural entities of TÜV Rheinland in Greater China as applicable as the case may be ("TÜV Rheinland"). The Greater China hereof refers to Mainland China, Hong Kong and Taiwan. The client hereby includes:	3.9	Only legally established and undisputed claims may be offset against claims by TÜV Rheinland. TÜV Rheinland shall have the right at all times to setoff any amount due or payable by the client, if relevant to the subject matter of the contract, by the client under any contracts, agreement and/or orders/quotations reached with TÜV Rheinland.	14.	Data protection notice
1.2	a) a natural person capable to form legally binding contracts under the applicable laws who concludes the contract not for the purpose of a daily use;	3.10	Acceptance of work	14.1	The client understands and agrees that TÜV Rheinland processes personal data (including but not limited to personal information) of the client and its related parties (including but not limited to the supplier of the client) for the purpose of fulfilling this contract. The client confirms that it has reviewed the sample content of the data subject, which includes the reference samples to access, use, or process the personal data that the client collected or processed by itself and transferred to TÜV Rheinland. For certain services, we may also process sensitive personal data. TÜV Rheinland will use and process the data in accordance with the relevant legal basis. If any personal data has to be disclosed or transferred to any third party or any overseas party outside of the district in which the personal data was collected, the client also confirms that it has reviewed the prior consent of the data subject. TÜV Rheinland will carry out cross-border data transmission and protect the data in compliance with the privacy and personal data security related laws and regulations in China and the local country. TÜV Rheinland will take measures to avoid fraud, leakage, abuse, manipulation, damage or unauthorized access of personal data. The personal data will be deleted immediately as soon as a corresponding reason for deletion arises. Data subjects may exercise the following rights: right of information, right of decision, right of rectification, right of deletion, right of processing limitation, right of objection, right of data transferability. In addition, persons concerned by the data processing have the right to revoke their consent at any time for the future, as well as the right to file a complaint with the competent data protection supervisory authority. For further details on the processing of personal data by TÜV Rheinland as the person responsible or contract processor, please refer to the respective data protection information. You can contact the Group Data Protection Officer of TÜV Rheinland, c/o group data protection@tuv.com or by post at the following address: TÜV Rheinland AG, c/o Data Protection Officer, Am Grauen Stein, 51105 Cologne, Germany.
1.3	Any standard terms and conditions of the client of any nature shall not apply and shall hereby be expressly excluded. No standard contractual conditions of the client shall form part of the contract even if TÜV Rheinland does not explicitly object to them.	3.11	Any part of the work result ordered which is complete in itself may be presented by TÜV Rheinland for acceptance as an instalment. The client shall be obliged to accept it immediately.	14.2	Charges apply if the test samples are stored at the premises of TÜV Rheinland. The cost of placing a test sample into storage will be disclosed to the client in the quotation.
1.4	In the event of an ongoing business relationship with the client, this GTBCB shall also apply to future contracts with the client without TÜV Rheinland having to refer to them separately in each individual case.	3.12	If acceptance is required or contractually agreed in an individual case, this shall be deemed to have taken place two (2) weeks after completion and handover of the work, unless the client expresses acceptance within this period starting at least one fundamental breach of contract by TÜV Rheinland. The client is not entitled to refuse acceptance due to insignificant breach of contract by TÜV Rheinland.	14.3	References samples or documentations are given to the client to be placed in storage at their premises, the reference samples or documentations must be made available to TÜV Rheinland upon request promptly and free of charge. If the client, in response to such a request, is incapable of making available the reference samples and/or documentations, any liability claims for material and pecuniary damage resulting from the respective testing and certification that is brought forward by the client against TÜV Rheinland shall be excluded.
2.	Quotations	3.13	If acceptance is excluded according to the nature of the work performance of TÜV Rheinland, the completion of the work shall take its place.	14.4	The retention period for the documentation shall be 10 (ten) years after the expiry of the test mark certificates or shall meet the applicable legal requirements for EUCEC certificates of conformity and GS mark certificates.
2.1	Unless otherwise agreed, all quotations submitted by TÜV Rheinland can be changed by TÜV Rheinland without notice prior to its acceptance and confirmation by the other party.	3.14	During the Follow-Audit stage, if the client was unable to make use of the time windows provided for the scope of a certification procedure for auditing performance by TÜV Rheinland and the client is therefore to be withdrawn (e.g. performance of surveillance audits), or if the client cancels or postpones a confirmed audit within two (2) weeks before the agreed date, TÜV Rheinland is entitled to immediately charge a lump-sum compensation of 10% of the order amount as compensation for expenses. The client reserves the right to object to the payment of the fee incurred no damage whatsoever or only a considerably lower damage than the above lump sum.	14.5	The costs of the handover and dispatch of the test samples for storage on the client's premises are borne by the client. TÜV Rheinland will be liable for the loss of test samples or reference samples from the laboratories or warehouses of TÜV Rheinland only in case of gross negligence.
3.	Coming into effect and duration of contracts	3.15	If it is necessary for the client to receive a copy of the confidential information transmitted by TÜV Rheinland, the client shall be obliged to provide a copy of the confidential information to TÜV Rheinland by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance and the disclosing party shall confirm in writing the confidentiality nature of the information. The disclosing party shall not be limited to the relevant direct and indirect purchasers, suppliers, subcontractors, etc.	15.	Retention of test material and documentation
3.1	The contract shall come into effect on the agreed terms upon the quotation letter of TÜV Rheinland or a separate contractual document being signed by both contracting parties, or upon the works requested by the client being carried out by TÜV Rheinland. If the client instructs TÜV Rheinland without receiving a quotation from TÜV Rheinland (quotation), TÜV Rheinland is, in its sole discretion, entitled to accept the order by giving written notice of such acceptance (including notice sent via electronic means) or by performing the respective service.	3.16	The disclosing party shall mark all confidential information disclosed in written form as confidential information. The client receiving party shall be obliged to mark confidential information transmitted by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance and the disclosing party shall confirm in writing the confidentiality nature of the information. The disclosing party shall not be limited to the relevant direct and indirect purchasers, suppliers, subcontractors, etc.	15.1	The test samples submitted by the client to TÜV Rheinland for testing will be scrapped following testing or will be returned to the client at the client's expense. The only exceptions are test samples, which are placed in storage on the basis of statutory regulations or of another agreement with the client.
3.2	The contract term starts upon the coming into effect of the contract in accordance with article 3.1 and shall continue for the term agreed in the contract.	3.17	For the purpose of these terms and conditions, "confidential information" means all know-how, trade secrets, patents, designs, drawings, technical data, test results, reports, samples, project documents, pricing and financial information, customer and supplier information, and marketing techniques and materials, tangible or intangible, that are supplied, transferred or otherwise disclosed by one Party (the "disclosing party") to the other Party (the "receiving party") in writing or orally, in printed or electronic format. Confidential information is expressly not the data and know-how collected, compiled or otherwise obtained by TÜV Rheinland (non-personal and not proprietary to the client) within the scope of the provision of services by TÜV Rheinland. TÜV Rheinland is entitled to store, use, further develop and pass on the data obtained in connection with the provision of services for the purposes of developing new services, improving services and enabling the provision of services.	15.2	Charges apply if the test samples are stored at the premises of TÜV Rheinland. The cost of placing a test sample into storage will be disclosed to the client in the quotation.
3.3	If the contract provides for an extension of the contract term, the contract term will be extended by the term provided for in the contract unless terminated in writing by either party with a three-month notice prior to the end of the contractual term.	3.18	The disclosing party shall mark all confidential information disclosed in written form as confidential information. The client receiving party shall be obliged to mark confidential information transmitted by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance and the disclosing party shall confirm in writing the confidentiality nature of the information. The disclosing party shall not be limited to the relevant direct and indirect purchasers, suppliers, subcontractors, etc.	15.3	References samples or documentations are given to the client to be placed in storage at their premises, the reference samples or documentations must be made available to TÜV Rheinland upon request promptly and free of charge. If the client, in response to such a request, is incapable of making available the reference samples and/or documentations, any liability claims for material and pecuniary damage resulting from the respective testing and certification that is brought forward by the client against TÜV Rheinland shall be excluded.
4.	Scope of services	3.19	The disclosing party shall mark all confidential information disclosed in written form as confidential information. The client receiving party shall be obliged to mark confidential information transmitted by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance and the disclosing party shall confirm in writing the confidentiality nature of the information. The disclosing party shall not be limited to the relevant direct and indirect purchasers, suppliers, subcontractors, etc.	15.4	The retention period for the documentation shall be 10 (ten) years after the expiry of the test mark certificates or shall meet the applicable legal requirements for EUCEC certificates of conformity and GS mark certificates.
4.1	The scope and type of the services to be provided by TÜV Rheinland shall be specified in the contractually agreed service scope of TÜV Rheinland by both parties. If no such separate service scope of TÜV Rheinland exists, then the written confirmation of order by TÜV Rheinland shall be decisive for the service to be provided. Unless otherwise agreed, services beyond the scope of the service description (e.g. checking the correctness and functionality of parts, product processes, installations, organizations not listed in the service description, as well as the intended use and application of such) are not covered. In particular, no responsibility is assumed for the design, selection of materials, construction and use of an existing part, product, process or plant, unless this is expressly stated in the order.	3.20	For the purpose of these terms and conditions, "confidential information" means all know-how, trade secrets, patents, designs, drawings, technical data, test results, reports, samples, project documents, pricing and financial information, customer and supplier information, and marketing techniques and materials, tangible or intangible, that are supplied, transferred or otherwise disclosed by one Party (the "disclosing party") to the other Party (the "receiving party") in writing or orally, in printed or electronic format. Confidential information is expressly not the data and know-how collected, compiled or otherwise obtained by TÜV Rheinland (non-personal and not proprietary to the client) within the scope of the provision of services by TÜV Rheinland. TÜV Rheinland is entitled to store, use, further develop and pass on the data obtained in connection with the provision of services for the purposes of developing new services, improving services and enabling the provision of services.	15.5	The costs of the handover and dispatch of the test samples for storage on the client's premises are borne by the client. TÜV Rheinland will be liable for the loss of test samples or reference samples from the laboratories or warehouses of TÜV Rheinland only in case of gross negligence.
4.2	The agreed services shall be performed in compliance with the regulations in force at the time the contract is entered into.	3.21	The disclosing party shall mark all confidential information disclosed in written form as confidential information. The client receiving party shall be obliged to mark confidential information transmitted by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance and the disclosing party shall confirm in writing the confidentiality nature of the information. The disclosing party shall not be limited to the relevant direct and indirect purchasers, suppliers, subcontractors, etc.	16.	Termination of the contract
4.3	TÜV Rheinland is entitled to determine, in its sole discretion, the method and nature of the assessment unless otherwise agreed in writing or if mandatory provisions require a specific procedure to be followed.	3.22	The disclosing party shall mark all confidential information disclosed in written form as confidential information. The client receiving party shall be obliged to mark confidential information transmitted by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance and the disclosing party shall confirm in writing the confidentiality nature of the information. The disclosing party shall not be limited to the relevant direct and indirect purchasers, suppliers, subcontractors, etc.	16.1	Notwithstanding clause 3.3 of the GTBCB, TÜV Rheinland and the client are entitled to terminate the contract in its entirety or, in the case of services combined in one contract, each of the combined services, if the client or the client's representative or the client's representative of the remaining services with six (6) months' notice to the end of the contractually agreed term. The notice period shall be shortened to six (6) weeks in case of TÜV Rheinland is prevented from performing the services due to loss or deterioration of the test samples or documentations.
4.4	On execution of the work there shall be no simultaneous assumption of any guarantee of the correctness (product quality) and working order of either tested or examined parts nor of the installation as a whole and its upstream and/or downstream processes, organizations, use and application in accordance with regulations, nor of the systems on which the installation is based. In particular, TÜV Rheinland shall assume no responsibility for the construction, selection of material and assembly of installations examined, nor for their use and application in accordance with regulations, unless these questions are expressly covered by the contract.	3.23	The disclosing party shall mark all confidential information disclosed in written form as confidential information. The client receiving party shall be obliged to mark confidential information transmitted by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance and the disclosing party shall confirm in writing the confidentiality nature of the information. The disclosing party shall not be limited to the relevant direct and indirect purchasers, suppliers, subcontractors, etc.	16.2	For good causes, TÜV Rheinland may consider giving a written notice to the client to terminate the contract and/or to scrap the test samples and the client shall pay the relevant service fees for the services provided by TÜV Rheinland up to the termination date of the contract.
4.5	In the case of inspection work, TÜV Rheinland shall not be responsible for the accuracy or checking of the safety programmes or safety regulations or for the inspection results, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing.	3.24	The disclosing party shall mark all confidential information disclosed in written form as confidential information. The client receiving party shall be obliged to mark confidential information transmitted by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance and the disclosing party shall confirm in writing the confidentiality nature of the information. The disclosing party shall not be limited to the relevant direct and indirect purchasers, suppliers, subcontractors, etc.	16.3	For good causes, TÜV Rheinland may consider giving a written notice to the client to terminate the contract and/or to scrap the test samples and the client shall pay the relevant service fees for the services provided by TÜV Rheinland up to the termination date of the contract.
4.6	If mandatory legal regulations and standards or official requirements for the agreed service scope change after conclusion of the contract, TÜV Rheinland shall be entitled to adjust the remuneration for resulting additional expenses.	3.25	The disclosing party shall mark all confidential information disclosed in written form as confidential information. The client receiving party shall be obliged to mark confidential information transmitted by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance and the disclosing party shall confirm in writing the confidentiality nature of the information. The disclosing party shall not be limited to the relevant direct and indirect purchasers, suppliers, subcontractors, etc.	16.4	For good causes, TÜV Rheinland may consider giving a written notice to the client to terminate the contract and/or to scrap the test samples and the client shall pay the relevant service fees for the services provided by TÜV Rheinland up to the termination date of the contract.
4.7	The services to be provided by TÜV Rheinland under the contract are agreed exclusively with the client. A contract of third parties with the services of TÜV Rheinland, as well as making available of and justifying conformity of the work results (test reports, test results, expert reports, etc.) is not part of the agreed services. The client also assumes the responsibility for work results in full or in extracts - to third parties in accordance with clause 11.4.	3.26	The disclosing party shall mark all confidential information disclosed in written form as confidential information. The client receiving party shall be obliged to mark confidential information transmitted by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance and the disclosing party shall confirm in writing the confidentiality nature of the information. The disclosing party shall not be limited to the relevant direct and indirect purchasers, suppliers, subcontractors, etc.	16.5	For good causes, TÜV Rheinland may consider giving a written notice to the client to terminate the contract and/or to scrap the test samples and the client shall pay the relevant service fees for the services provided by TÜV Rheinland up to the termination date of the contract.
4.8	The client understands and agrees that in order to perform the contract with TÜV Rheinland, the client may need to sign one or more contracts/agreements with a third party(ies) and establish legal relationships with that/those third party(ies) according to such contracts/agreements. TÜV Rheinland shall not be responsible for the construction, selection of material and assembly of installations examined, nor for their use and application in accordance with regulations, unless these questions are expressly covered by the contract.	3.27	The disclosing party shall mark all confidential information disclosed in written form as confidential information. The client receiving party shall be obliged to mark confidential information transmitted by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance and the disclosing party shall confirm in writing the confidentiality nature of the information. The disclosing party shall not be limited to the relevant direct and indirect purchasers, suppliers, subcontractors, etc.	16.6	For good causes, TÜV Rheinland may consider giving a written notice to the client to terminate the contract and/or to scrap the test samples and the client shall pay the relevant service fees for the services provided by TÜV Rheinland up to the termination date of the contract.
